SECOND IN WINS SINCE 2011

Clemson has a 95-15 record in the last eight seasons dating to the beginning of the 2011 season. This season marks Clemson's eighth consecutive season with double-digits wins, the second-longest streak in the country. Only Alabama (102-9) has more wins the last eight years.

The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (86.4) in that time frame. Only Alabama has a higher winning percentage (91.9).

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson has a streak of eight consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. Its eighth consecutive 10-win season in 2018 ties the Tigers with the 1985-92 Miami Hurricanes and the 2004-11 Virginia Tech Hokies for the fourth-longest streak in FBS history and makes Clemson one of only six programs to accomplish the feat.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-00). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least eight straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers have 15 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming in the last eight years under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2018 season is Clemson's fifth with at least 12 wins, and Swinney has been at the helm for four of them.

A CENTURY MARK FOR THE DECADE

Head coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history. Included below are the schools that have accomplished that feat.

100 WINS BY DECADE

| Decade | Teams |
|--------|-------|
| 1890s | Penn (124), Yale (116), Princeton (107), Harvard (103) |
| 1900s | Yale (100), Penn (100) |

| 2010s | Alabama (112), Ohio State (103), Clemson (101) |

Note: FBS programs.

Including a 13-0 record this year, Clemson has a 101-22 record in the decade of the 2010s. That computes to an 82.1 winning percentage, the best for any decade in school history and the first time Clemson has won more than 80 percent in a single decade.

In the 1980s, Clemson had a 76.7 winning percentage (87-25-4), the nation's fifth-best winning percentage. Clemson did not have a losing season in any year in the 1980s under head coach Danny Ford, who coached every game in that decade. Dabo Swinney has coached every game in the decade of the 2010s and has eight winning seasons and one losing season (6-7 in 2010).

BEST IN CLASS

Though the team formally celebrated Senior Day against Duke on Nov. 17, the 2018 senior class' accomplishments remain cause for celebration.

An attempt to encapsulate the full contribution of Clemson's 2018 senior class may be futile, as the group already ranks as one of the most successful senior classes in the history of college football. Currently, the 2018 senior class:

- Holds a 53-4 overall record in the last four years, one of two senior classes in the country to total 50 wins in that span.
- Is already the winningest class in both Clemson and ACC history.
- Became the first senior class in history to play in four consecutive ACC Championship Games, and with a 42-10 win against Pittsburgh, became the first class in history to win four ACC titles outright in a row.
- Became only the second senior class in the country to earn four consecutive College Football Playoff berths.
- Has won 44 games against Power Five Conference opponents since 2015, most in the country.
- Has been ranked in the AP top 15 in every poll of their careers, including a top-10 ranking in each of the last 58 polls, tied for the longest streak in the country.
- Finished 27-1 at home, tied for the best home record in the country since 2015 and tied with the 2017 Clemson seniors for the most home wins.
- Finished 23-1 in ACC Atlantic Division play and posted 4-0 marks against five of its six ACC Atlantic Division foes, with 4-0 records against Boston College, Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest.

FIFTH ACC TEAM WITH 13 WINS

Clemson is just the fifth ACC team in history to record at least 13 wins in a season. Clemson has been responsible for the conference's three most-recent 13-win campaigns after posting a 14-1 record during both the 2015 and 2016 seasons.

Clemson's 1981 national championship team was the first ACC squad to total 12 wins in a season. Florida State accomplished the feat five times between 1993 and 2014, including a streak of three seasons with at least 12 wins from 2012-14. The Seminoles won a record 14 games (14-0) in 2013, a mark later tied by Clemson in 2015 and 2016.

Both Pittsburgh and Miami (Fla.) have posted 12-win seasons, but those years came prior to their addition to the ACC.

RECORD-SETTING EIGHT SEASONS (2011-18)

FOUR LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson has won four straight ACC championships, joining Oklahoma as one of just two Power Five Conference schools to have an active streak of four consecutive conference championships.

POWER FIVE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS (2015-18)

| Conference | 2015 | 2016 | 2017 | 2018 |

| B10 | Michigan State | Penn State | Ohio State | Ohio State |
| B12 | Oklahoma | Oklahoma | Oklahoma | Oklahoma |
| P12 | Stanford | Washington | Southern California | Washington |

Clemson became the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-00, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson became the only the second Power Five Conference school since the inception of league championship games in 1992 to win four straight conference championship games, joining the Florida Gators, who won four straight SEC Championship Games in a row from 1993-96.

• Has won 19 of its last 20 games in October.
• Has won 10 games in a row in November.
• Has won nine games in a row in December.
• Has won 63 of its last 65 games against unranked teams.
• Has won 18 of its last 19 games against top-25 teams.
• Has won 28 of its last 30 games against teams that ended their season in a bowl game.
• Has won 66 straight games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level'," recounted Swinney prior to the 2018 season. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

ROCKNE, BRYANT, SWINNEY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

In Clemson's late-September win against Syracuse, Swinney passed the number of total victories earned by Notre Dame's Knute Rockne, the winningest coach by percentage in Division I history. Rockne compiled a 105-12-5 career record from 1918-30 at Notre Dame for a record 88.1 winning percentage.

Swinney's current 79.2 winning percentage is 18th best in Division I history among coaches with a minimum of 10 years experience, moving ahead of No. 19 Nick Saban (79.1). Earlier this year against Wake Forest, Swinney passed Bear Bryant, who had a 78.0 winning percentage (323-85-17).

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Entering 2018, Clemson had equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings each of the last seven years. That included quite an accomplishment in 2016, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking.

Clemson has exceeded its preseason ranking each of the last seven years in the coaches poll and has exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll six of the seven. Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll in 2013 and finished No. 8. Dabo Swinney is the first head coach in history with a seven-year streak in that area. John Cooper (Ohio State) and Bill Snyder (Kansas State) had five-year streaks.

BOWL SUCCESS UNDER SWINNEY

Clemson has posted a 7-5 bowl record under head coach Dabo Swinney, including a 6-2 mark in its last eight bowl games dating to the 2012 season.

Clemson's six bowl wins under Swinney have not come against run-of-the-mill opponents. All six of Swinney's bowl victories have come against national-championsip-winning head coaches, including wins against Les Miles, Urban Meyer, Bob Stoops and Nick Saban.

PLAYOFF SEMIFINAL

Clemson entered the 2018 season as the No. 2 team in the nation according to both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls, and enters the postseason with the same ranking.

Despite the pressure of that preseason and continuing rankings, the Tigers swept through 13 games, 12 regular season and the ACC Championship Game, the second time in four years (2015) head coach Dabo Swinney's program accomplished that feat.

The 2018 Tigers have won 11 of their 13 games by 20+ points, including an active streak of eight consecutive games. It is the most accomplished team in Clemson history in terms of statistical rankings on both sides of the ball.

Clemson leads the nation in yards per carry (6.75) and leads the nation in yards per carry allowed (2.40). No FBS team has accomplished that for the course of the season in the last 10 years.

Clemson's scoring margin of 31.7 points per game is on pace to be the second best in school history and the best since 1900, when John Heisman's team won by 35.3 points per game.

A review of the offensive and defensive national rankings further documents the program as one of the most well rounded in Clemson history and the country today.

Clemson is:

• Second in scoring defense and fifth in scoring offense.
• Third in rushing defense and 10th in rushing offense.
• Third in sacks by the defense and 11th in fewest sacks allowed.
• Fourth in total defense and fifth in total offense.
• Seventh in the nation in first down defense and 10th in first down offense.
• 11th in the nation in redzone offense and redzone defense.

The 2018 Tiger team is led by a senior class that has a 53-4 record, tied for the second-most wins in a four-year period in the history of Division I college football. The only class with more wins is the current Alabama senior class. The class has been a part of four ACC championships, the first in league history to win the league outright four consecutive years.

The group is making its fourth straight trip to the College Football Playoff. Seventeen of the wins have come against teams ranked in the AP, USA Today or College Football Playoff top 25 entering the game.

The class has been ranked in the top 12 entering each of its 57 games and has a streak of 58 consecutive polls in the top 10, tied for the longest active streak in the nation with Alabama. Clemson's streak of 21 straight weeks in the top five is also a school record.

OFFENSE

The Clemson offense has already scored more points than any other in school history (590) and is averaging a school-standard 529.8 yards per game. That number is almost evenly divided by rushing (259.8) and passing (270.1). Clemson is one of three schools nationally (Central Florida, Oklahoma) to average at least 250 rushing yards and 250 passing yards this year.

While those are the averages for the 13 games, the Tigers have had at least 250 rushing yards and passing yards in the same game just twice this year. Co-offensive coordinators Tony Elliott and Jeff Scott have done an outstanding job of "taking what the defense gives you." As a result, The Tigers have had five games of at least 300 rushing yards and five games of at least 290 passing yards.

The quarterback of the Clemson offense is freshman Trevor Lawrence. The rookie from Cartersville, Ga., split time with graduate Kelly Bryant the first four games of the season. Then, after Lawrence had three passing touchdowns and had a pass efficiency rating of 217 at Georgia Tech, Swinney made Lawrence the full-time starter.

Bryant decided to take advantage of the new four-game redshirt rule and left the team so he could play the 2019 season. He announced he will transfer to Missouri.

That gave Lawrence control of the car, and he responded by leading the Tigers to nine more victories in his nine starts. For the year, he has completed 212-326 passes for 2,606 yards and 24 touchdowns against just four interceptions. In six of his nine starts, Clemson has scored at least 40 points.

In terms of passing efficiency, Lawrence's 154.0 rating is 19th best in the nation, the same standing Deshaun Watson had when he led Clemson to the 2016 national championship.

Lawrence has been outstanding when it comes to the redzone, as he has 15 passing touchdowns and no interceptions when inside the opposing team's 20-yard line.

Lawrence, named a first-team freshman All-American and Second-Team All-ACC quarterback, has already broken Watson's Clemson first-year freshman records for completions, passing yards, passing touchdowns and pass efficiency rating. He needs just one more win to break Kyle Parker's record for wins by any freshman starting quarterback in Tiger history.

The game against Notre Dame will be his biggest challenge, as the Fighting Irish are fourth in the nation in pass efficiency defense and ninth in scoring defense. Clemson has not faced a team in the top 25 in the nation in either category.

Chase Brice is Lawrence's backup. A redshirt freshman, he came off the bench when Lawrence was injured to lead a thrilling comeback victory over Syracuse. For the year, Brice is 32-49 passing for 442 yards and five touchdowns. His 162.5 passing efficiency is actually better than Lawrence's.

Lawrence and Brice have many options when it comes to his passing targets, as four wide receivers have at least 34 catches and at least 472 yards.

The leader in terms of receptions (52), yards (802) and touchdowns (10) is sophomore Tee Higgins. The native of Tennessee has at least one reception in every game and has had three games of at least 100 yards, highlighted by a 142-yard effort against rival South Carolina. He has had at least one receiving touchdown in eight games.

Amari Rodgers has 47 receptions for 519 yards and four touchdowns and is one of the top punt returners in the ACC. He is second on the team in all-purpose yards (835). He had six catches for 156 yards and two scores in the win over Florida State.

Hunter Renfrow is the veteran of the wide receiver group who has at least one reception in a school-record 41 consecutive games. The graduate has 43 catches for 472 yards this year, and has 180 career receptions for 2,061 yards and 15 touchdowns in his four years in the program.

Referred to as "Third & Renfrow," he has 52 career third-down catches, 41 of which have resulted in a first down. When it comes to postseason, no one has been more productive at any school. In five career CFP games, the native of Myrtle Beach, S.C., has 31 receptions for 320 yards and five scores. He holds the CFP records for receptions and receiving touchdowns.

First-year freshman Justyn Ross has 34 receptions for 699 yards and six touchdowns. His 20.6 yards-per-catch figure is seventh in the nation. The native of Alabama has six receptions of at least 40 yards this year, tied for 10th in the nation.

Four more wide receivers, Trevion Thompson (17-154), Derion Kendrick (15-210), Diondre Overton (13-187) and T.J. Chase (10-84) are all contributors to the passing game and are capable of big plays.

Clemson is equally proficient when it comes to the running game. The Tigers average 6.75 yards per carry and have three of the top-15 players in the nation when it comes to yards per carry.

Travis Etienne is the leader with 1,463 yards on 176 carries, a school-record 8.3 yards per carry. He needs just 65 yards to break Wayne Gallman's Tiger single-season record of 1,527 in 2015. The Doak Walker Award finalist has 21 rushing touchdowns and 22 overall to break C.J. Spiller's record of 21 set in 2009. He is the 2018 ACC Player-of-the-Year, the first Clemson running back to win the award since Spiller.

The sophomore from Louisiana has had six games of at least 150 rushing yards, including a career-high 203 rushing yards and three touchdowns against Syracuse in Clemson's four-point win. He finished the season strong with 150 rushing yards against South Carolina and 156 yards on just 12 carries against Pittsburgh. He was the MVP of the ACC Championship Game.

Clemson's second-leading rusher is first-year freshman Lyn-J Dixon. If you think Etienne's 8.3-yard average is something, try Dixon's 9.6-yard figure on 56 carries. He has 536 rushing yards and has added five touchdowns. He had 163 rushing yards and two touchdowns at Wake Forest and 116 yards on just four carries at Florida State.

Adam Choice (7.4) and Tavien Feaster (5.8) have also contributed healthy averages this year. Choice has gone over the 500-yard rushing mark as well (506) and has scored seven touchdowns, three of which came in his final home game against South Carolina. Feaster has 409 rushing yards and six scores, as the Tigers have rushed for 46 touchdowns in 2018, already a Clemson single-season record and tied for most in the nation.

Milan Richard is the most experienced of the tight ends with 56 games, including 16 starts. He has six catches for 60 yards and a touchdown. Garrett Williams is one of the reasons for Clemson's success on the ground due to his blocking from the H-back and tight-end positions. Cannon Smith, a senior tight end, has played in all 53 victories over the last four years, one of just two Tigers who can make that claim. Freshman tight end Braden Galloway is a star of the future.

The offensive line has a great deal to do with Clemson's success this year. Clemson is 11th in the nation in sacks allowed and has allowed just two sacks in the last six games on 205 passing attempts.

The leader of the offensive line is senior Mitch Hyatt. Among the most decorated Clemson linemen in history, he is a two-time, first-team All-American and was one of eight semifinalists for the Outland Trophy this year. The only three-time, First-Team All-ACC offensive tackle in Clemson history has won the ACC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy each of the last two years after Clemson had not had a winner of that award since 1987. Hyatt is Clemson's career leader in starts at any position (55) and has played more snaps than any other Tiger in history.

Hyatt was the only Tiger offensive lineman to earn First-Team All-ACC honors this year, but the other four starters all earned at least Second or Third-Team honors. Tremayne Anchrum, Sean Pollard and Justin Falcinelli all earned Second-Team All-ACC honors in 2018.

Anchrum has started all 13 games and has played 672 snaps. He is a veteran of 38 games and 20 starts. Pollard is in his third year as a starter and has started seven of his 12 appearances and has played 441 snaps. He was also honored as one of 22 players from around the nation named to the Allstate Good Works Team in 2018. Falcinelli is completing his second full season as Clemson's starting center. The graduate student, who is the son of a former Notre Dame football player and graduate, has started 12 games and has played 673 snaps this year.

John Simpson is a starting offensive guard as a sophomore this year and was named to the Third-Team All-ACC squad. He has started all 13 games and has played 730 snaps, just nine fewer than Hyatt's team-leading total. Gage Cervenka has come one in the second half of the season to become a starter at guard as well.

DEFENSE

With the return of three defensive linemen who could have gone within at least the first-two rounds of the NFL draft, most expected Clemson would have a strong defense in 2018. The unit has not disappointed, posting top-10 national rankings in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and pass efficiency defense. The unit has a chance to lead the ACC in all four categories with a solid performance in the College Football Playoff.

Clemson has allowed just 13.7 points per game, 276.7 yards per game, 92.9 rushing yards per game and 183.8 passing yards per game. Clemson has held nine opponents under 300 yards total offense, seven opponents under 100 rushing yards and six opponents under 105 passing yards. Only three teams have scored more than two touchdowns against the Tigers, and Clemson's defense has allowed just 19 touchdowns, eight rushing and 11 passing.

Nine of the 11 starters on Clemson's defense earned First, Second or Third-Team All-ACC honors and all four of Clemson's defensive line starters have made an All-American team over their respective careers.

The defensive front of Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence and Austin Bryant have played a combined 188 games and have totaled 709 tackles, 138 tackles for loss and 70 sacks. This year, the group has 176 tackles, 48.5 tackles for loss and 23 sacks.

Wilkins is the most decorated player of the four. He was named an All-American for the third time this year, just the third Tiger in history to earn All-America honors in three different seasons (William Perry, Sammy Watkins). Wilkins is a two-time finalist for the Nagurski Award and was also a finalist for the Bednarik Award, Outland Trophy and Lott IMPACT Trophy this year.

This season, Wilkins became the program's first winner of the Campbell Trophy, presented by the National Football Foundation. It is regarded as the academic Heisman Trophy. He was also the recipient of the Jim Tatum Award as the top football student-athlete in the ACC.

On the field, Wilkins is fifth in the team in tackles (52), most among Tiger defensive linemen. He has 13.5 tackles for loss and five sacks. He had two pass breakups and 16 for his career, more than any other defensive lineman in school history. He has also found time to score two rushing touchdowns on offense.

Wilkins has played all 57 games of his career, and 53 have been Clemson victories. He has more starts (43) on the defensive line than any other Tiger in history as well.

Joining Wilkins on the defensive interior line is Dexter Lawrence. The junior has 44 tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks. His ability to clog the middle of the line is a big reason Clemson has allowed just 2.4 yards per carry this year, best in the nation.

Clelin Ferrell won the Ted Hendricks Award as the top defensive end in college football this year. He has 45 tackles, a team-high 17 for loss and a team-high 10.5 sacks. His career sack total is tied for second in Clemson history and only trails Vic Beasley, who had 33 from 2011-14.

Austin Bryant first made a splash as a freshman in the 2015 Orange Bowl against Oklahoma. He had to replace an injured Shaq Lawson in the first quarter and had eight tackles and two tackles for loss.

The senior has had a strong 2018 with 35 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss and six sacks. He has 31 career tackles for loss and 18 sacks.

Clemson's second-team defensive line has also been productive, combining for 916 snaps, 99 tackles, 21 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. Xavier Thomas is a precocious freshman who has 38 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss and three sacks. He was named a first-team freshman All-American.

Sophomore Nyles Pinckney and senior Albert Huggins both have 24 tackles and 3.5 tackles for loss off the bench this year, while Justin Foster is a defensive end who has 13 tackles and 4.5 tackles for loss.

The second line of defense is led by Isaiah Simmons, Tre Lamar and Kendall Joseph. They are the top three tacklers in Brent Venables' defense.

Simmons is a sophomore who saw his tackle total rise from 49 as a freshman to 83 as a sophomore. Clemson's top tackler has 64 first hits and 19 assists. Additionally, he has eight tackles for loss and five pass breakups in coverage and a touchdown on an interception. He had a career-high 12 tackles in the win over NC State this year and added nine tackles in the ACC Championship Game against Pittsburgh.

Joseph is second on the team in tackles with 78, including five tackles for loss and four sacks. He enters the CFP with 300 career tackles, more than any other active Tiger. Four times he led Clemson in tackles this year.

Lamar is third on the team in tackles (74), including 5.5 tackles for loss and three sacks. Lamar was a finalist for the Butkus Award. After missing the South Carolina game with an injury, Lamar returned for the ACC Championship Game against Pittsburgh.

J.D. Davis has started two games at linebacker and has 40 tackles in 2018, most among non-starters. Chad Smith is a reliable linebacker who has 34 tackles, including eight on special team. Jalen Williams is a graduate who has played in five CFP games and has 19 tackles this year.

The secondary features three starters who earned All-ACC honors this year. Cornerback Trayvon Mullen was a Second-Team All-ACC selection, while cornerback A.J. Terrell and safety Tanner Muse earned Third-Team All-ACC selections.

Mullen has 26 tackles in his 13 games and four pass breakups. Opposing quarterbacks rarely throw in his direction. Terrell has 42 tackles and six pass breakups to go with two interceptions. Muse has 68 tackles, fourth on the team, two interceptions and four pass breakups.

K'Von Wallace is a starting safety who has 46 tackles, including 42 first hits and a team-high seven pass breakups to go with an interception. He leads the secondary in tackles and was an Honorable Mention All-ACC selection.

Denzel Johnson and Nolan Turner are two reserve safeties who see a lot of action. Johnson has 39 tackles in 347 snaps and Turner has 38 tackles in 341 snaps. Mark Fields is a senior who has had some injuries that have limited his playing time, but he has played in the secondary in four CFP games and has nine tackles and four pass breakups this year.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Clemson has an experienced and talented placekicking game, led by senior Greg Huegel, who has made 9-13 field goals and all 68 of his extra points this season. That is a school record for extra points and for consecutive extra points in a season. He has made 72 in a row dating to the Louisville game in 2017.

Huegel was an All-American according to Sports Illustrated as a freshman when he led the nation in field goals, making 27-32 that year. He was injured and played just three games last year, but is a veteran of four CFP games and is 6-9 on field goals and 17-17 on extra points, giving him 35 total points in playoff games.

Huegel is second on the team in scoring this year with 95 points and has 366 career points, second in Tiger history to former placekicker Chandler Catanzaro (404). Huegel's holder is Will Swinney, the son of the Tiger head coach. He is in his second year as the holder on placekicks.

Will Spiers is the punter and has 56 punts for a 39.4-yard average with 17 punts inside the 20 against just four touchbacks. He has eight punts of 50+ yards, including a 63-yarder in the ACC Championship Game that is his season long and the longest in the history of the ACC Championship Game. This is Spiers' second year as Clemson's starting punter. He punted seven times for a 39.3-yard average in the Sugar Bowl against Alabama last year.

One of the top special teams weapons has been B.T. Potter, who handles kickoffs. The freshman has 100 kickoffs this year and has 67 touchbacks, the most touchbacks in Clemson history. He is third in the nation in touchbacks this season and has not had a kickoff go out of bounds. He is a big reason Tiger opponents have started 132 drives at their own 25 or worse and have driven for a touchdown just seven times.

Clemson's top tackler on special teams is Simmons, who is also the Tigers' leading tackler overall. He has 11 special teams tackles this year, three ahead of Chad Smith, who has eight.

BOWL NOTES

SERIES HISTORY VS. NOTRE DAME

This will be the fourth game all-time between Clemson and Notre Dame. The visiting team won the first two games by six points or less, with Notre Dame winning at Clemson by a 21-17 score in 1977, and Clemson earning victory at Notre Dame by a 16-10 score in 1979.

Clemson became the first home team to win in the series on Oct. 3, 2015, when the Tigers posted a 24-22 victory. Notre Dame scored with seven seconds left, but the Tigers stopped quarterback DeShone Kizer on a run for the two-point conversion.

Turnovers have been a key in all three games, as the winning team won the turnover margin each time. In fact, the winning team has been at least +3 in that area.

In 1977, Notre Dame forced five Clemson turnovers and had just one on offense. In 1979, the stats were reversed as Clemson forced five turnovers at Notre Dame and committed just one. In 2015, the last meeting, Clemson forced four turnovers, including three fumble recoveries, and turned the ball over just once on offense. So winning teams have a 14-3 combined advantage in turnover margin in the series.

Clemson has been ranked in the top 15 in the nation heading into the Notre Dame game in all four meetings, including a No. 2 ranking this year. The Tigers were ranked 15th entering the 1977 contest, 14th in 1979 and 12th in 2015. It will be the third time Notre Dame has been ranked in the top six entering the game with Clemson. The Irish were fifth in 1977, unranked in 1979, sixth in 2015 and third this year.

WINNING RECORD VS. NOTRE DAME

Only six current FBS schools which have played Notre Dame at least three times have a winning record against the Irish. Clemson is one of those schools with a 2-1 record. The other schools with a winning mark against the Irish with a minimum of three games are Florida State (6-3), Michigan (24-18-1), Nebraska (8-7-1), Ohio State (4-2) and NC State (2-1).

Three of the six are from the ACC. The league has a 4-2 all-time bowl record against the Fighting Irish.

This will be just the fourth meeting between Clemson and Notre Dame, but the game will be the first of four meetings scheduled between the two teams from 2018-23. Clemson will travel to Notre Dame for a game on Nov. 7, 2020 and another game during the 2022 season. Notre Dame is scheduled to travel to Clemson in 2023.

TIGER COORDINATORS VS. NOTRE DAME

Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables faced Notre Dame once as an assistant coach at Oklahoma. Notre Dame beat the Sooners, 34-30, in South Bend in 1999, the year prior to Oklahoma winning the National Championship. Venables later coached against the Irish in 2015, helping Clemson to a 24-22 win.

Special Teams Coordinator Danny Pearman faced Notre Dame twice before coming to Clemson as a coach, and both games came in South Bend with two different schools. The Clemson graduate was an assistant at North Carolina in 2006 when Notre Dame beat the Tar Heels, 45-26. The next year as an assistant coach at Duke, the Irish beat the Blue Devils, 28-7, in South Bend. He also coached on Swinney's staff in 2015 when the Tigers defeated the Irish.

One Clemson assistant played against Notre Dame in one of the most famous games in Notre Dame history. Mike Reed was a defensive back for Boston College in 1993 and played in the Eagles' 41-39 win in South Bend. That Boston College win came one week after Notre Dame had beaten Florida State and moved the Irish to No. 1 in the nation. But the Eagles made a field goal on the last play of the game to keep Notre Dame from going to the National Championship game. Reed started that game in the secondary, but was injured in the first half and did not return.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS, STRENGTH VS. STRENGTH

One key Cotton Bowl matchup will be Clemson's ability to produce explosive plays and Notre Dame's ability to limit them.

Clemson is in the top 10 in the nation in offensive plays of 20, 30, 40, 50 and 60 yards, while Notre Dame is in the top 10 in the nation in preventing plays of those distances.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS COMPARISON (2018)

| Distance | Clemson Offense | Notre Dame Defense |
|---|---|---|
| 20-Yard Plays | 90 (3rd) | 35 (8th) |
| 30-Yard Plays | 50 (3rd) | 12 (4th) |
| 40-Yard Plays | 30 (2nd) | 5 (4th) |
| 50-Yard Plays | 19 (2nd) | 2 (8th) |
| 60-Yard Plays | 11 (4th) | 9 (1st) |

RUNNING BACK BATTLE

Two of the most productive running backs in the nation will be on display in the Cotton Bowl. Clemson running back Travis Etienne averages 112.3 yards per game on the ground and Notre Dame's Dexter Williams has a 117.6-yard average.

Etienne was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, which is given to the top running back in college football. He has an incredible 8.31 yards per rush average, on pace to be the best in Clemson history. He is second in the nation in yards per rush among players with at least 150 carries. Etienne has 21 rushing touchdowns to rank third in the nation, just one score off of first place. He has seven 100-yard rushing games, including six with at least 150 yards.

Williams missed the first four games of the season due to a suspension, but has averaged 117.6 yards a game over the last eight games. He has a 6.63 average per carry and has 12 touchdowns in his eight games.

ETIENNE VS. WILLIAMS

CLEMSON-NOTRE DAME CONNECTIONS

Joe Montana & Dwight Clark: Montana (Notre Dame, 1975-78) to Clark (Clemson, 1975-78) was one of the top passing combinations in the NFL from 1979-87. The duo combined on what is regarded as "The Catch" in the 1982 NFC Championship game between the 49ers and the Cowboys. A statue depicting the play is now outside the 49ers Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., the site of this year's CFP National Championship game. Clark passed away after fighting ALS earlier this year.

Clark led the NFC in receiving in 1981 and 1982 and was the MVP of the NFL in 1982. They played on Super Bowl Championship teams at the end of the 1981 and 1984 seasons. The two were on opposite sides of the field when the two schools met at Clemson in 1977.

Deshaun Watson & Will Fuller: The modern day version of Montana to Clark is Watson to Fuller. Former Clemson quarterback Deshaun Watson and former Notre Dame wide receiver Will Fuller are now teammates with the Houston Texans. Just as Montana and Clark played against each other at Clemson in 1977, Watson and Fuller played against each other at Clemson in 2015.

The duo combined for 11 touchdown passes over the 2017 and 2018 seasons. Watson suffered an injury that limited him to nine games in 2017 and Fuller suffered an injury that has limited him to seven games this year.

Justin Falcinelli: Clemson starting center Justin Falcinelli is a two-time All-ACC selection. His father was on the Notre Dame football team in the early 1980s and is a 1985 Notre Dame graduate.

Dorian O'Daniel & Sam Mustipher: Former Clemson linebacker Dorian O'Daniel and current Notre Dame center Sam Mustipher were high school teammates at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Olney, Md. O'Daniel, now a Kansas City Chief, was on Clemson's 2016 National Championship team and was an All-American on Clemson's 2017 team. Mustipher is the starting center at Notre Dame and was a finalist for the Rimington Award.

Frank Shaughnessy: Shaughnessy holds the Notre Dame record for the longest play of any kind in school history. In 1904, the field was 110 yards long, so Shaughnessy caught a mid-air Kansas fumble and raced 107 yards for a score.

Just three years later he was the head football coach at Clemson. Shaughnessy fascinating life included playing Major League Baseball, managing a team to the Stanley Cup Finals, serving as a minor league baseball manager in the Dodgers organization and as President of the AAA International Baseball League when Jackie Robinson played in the league (1946).

But, among his many stops, he was the head football coach at Clemson in 1907, leading the Tigers to 4-4 record. He beat John Heisman's Georgia Tech team in the season finale by a 6-5 score.

Frank Leahy: Leahy was the head coach at Boston College in 1939 and 1940. His first Boston College team lost to Clemson in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, the only bowl loss of his career. He won a bowl game as Boston College's head coach the next year over Tennessee, then went to Notre Dame as head coach for the 1941 season.

Notre Dame had a self-imposed ban on bowl participation his entire tenure (1941-53) with the Notre Dame program due to the school's academic schedule. He is still the second-winningest coach in college football history on a percentage basis, trailing only his mentor, Knute Rockne, but he was 0-1 in his career against Clemson.

Cotton Bowl & Texas Success: Clemson and Notre Dame have both had success at the Cotton Bowl and in the state of Texas. This will be Clemson's second appearance in the Cotton Bowl. The Tigers defeated Leahy's 11th-ranked Boston College team in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, 6-3. It was Clemson's first bowl game in history and first win over a top 20 team.

Frank Howard's highest-ranked victory in his 30 years as head coach was recorded in the state of Texas, a 23-7 win over seventh ranked TCU in the 1959 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston. Earlier this year, Clemson gained victory in the state of Texas with a 28-26 win at Texas A&M, the Tigers' first win in the state since that 1959 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Notre Dame has a 5-2 record in the Cotton Bowl, including two wins over the nation's top-ranked team. The Irish defeated Texas, 24-11, in the 1971 Cotton Bowl, ending a 30-game winning streak and denying the Longhorns the National Championship. Notre Dame also defeated a No. 1 ranked Texas team, 38-10, in the 1978 Cotton Bowl, again denying the Longhorns a national title. Notre Dame jumped from fifth to first in the final AP poll to win the title because of that dominating performances.

Notre Dame last played in the Cotton Bowl in 1994 following the 1993 season, defeating Texas A&M.

Ricky Gray: Gray lettered for both schools. The former DeMatha High School player enrolled at Clemson as a freshman in 1980 and lettered for the Tigers that season as a tight end. He transferred to Holy Cross Junior College, a school across the street from the Notre Dame campus in 1981, then matriculated to Notre Dame and lettered for the Irish from 1982-84 under Gerry Faust.

Troy & Thad Ridgley: Troy Ridgley was a defensive lineman who was a letterman on Notre Dame's 1988 National Championship team. He also lettered in 1989 and 1991. Thad Ridgley, his brother, lettered at Clemson in 1992 and 1993. It is the only known brother combination to play for both schools in football.

Troy Pride: Current Notre Dame starting defensive back Troy Pride played his high school football at Greer High School in Greer, S.C. His high school coach was former Clemson All-ACC offensive lineman Will Young (1992-95). Pride helped Greer to an 11-1 record his senior year.

Banks McFadden & Moose Krause: Only eight athletes in college sports history have earned All-America honors in football and basketball over their careers. Clemson and Notre Dame each had one of the eight.

McFadden was an All-American in basketball first in 1938-39 when he took Clemson to the Southern Conference championship. He then made All-American as a quarterback and defensive back in the fall of 1939 when he led Clemson to a 9-1 record and a win in the Cotton Bowl.

Krause was better known for his basketball and was a three-time All-American from 1931-33. He was the second three-time All-American in college basketball history. The first was Purdue's John Wooden, later the coach at UCLA. Krause, who was recruited to play football by Knute Rockne before the legendary coach died in a plane crash, was an All-America tackle in 1932 on the gridiron.

Later as Notre Dame director of athletics, Krause brokered the deal with Frank Howard to play a two-game series between Clemson and Notre Dame in 1977 and 1979.

1978 Final UPI Poll: The only time Clemson has been tied with another school in a final poll was in 1978 when Clemson and Notre Dame were tied for sixth in the nation in the final UPI Coaches poll. The two schools played in 1977 and 1979, but not 1978.

Horace Grant & Jerian Grant: The biggest common denominator between Clemson and Notre Dame outside of football took place in basketball. Horace Grant was the MVP of the ACC in 1986-87, the only time a Clemson basketball player has been MVP of the ACC. His nephew, Jerian Grant, was the MVP of the ACC Tournament and led the Irish to the ACC Championship in 2015. He is the only Notre Dame player to be MVP of a postseason conference tournament. Horace and his twin brother, Harvey Grant, Jerian's dad, who also went to Clemson, were in Greensboro for that ACC Tournament to witness it.

PREVIOUS GAMES VS. NOTRE DAME
Notre Dame 21, Clemson 17
Nov. 12, 1977 at Memorial Stadium
Game Notes

- Clemson was 7-1-1 and ranked 15th in the nation entering the game while Notre Dame was 7-1 and ranked fifth. It would be the first meeting of top 15 teams in the history of Memorial Stadium. Clemson had not been to a bowl game in 18 years and first year head coach Charley Pell had brought renewed enthusiasm to the program.

- The day would see arguably the greatest collection of players on the Memorial Stadium turf in the history of the facility. A look back at the rosters of the two teams shows that 36 players went on to play in the NFL that combined to collect 14 Super Bowl rings. Seven players between the two teams would be first-round draft choices and 18 players would go on to be selected as All-Americans by the end of their careers.

Nineteen of Notre Dame's 22 starters were eventually drafted by the NFL, which does not include Vagas Ferguson, who was Notre Dame's top rusher that day but came off the bench following senior Terry Eurick. Nine of Clemson's 22 starters would go on to play at least five years in the NFL, more NFL five-year vets than Notre Dame had among its starters.

- The list of players from Clemson included offensive linemen Joe Bostic and Jeff Bostic, who went on to play a combined 24 years and 316 games in the NFL. Clemson Ring of Honor inductees Steve Fuller and Jerry Butler were keys to the Clemson offense. Fuller won a Super Bowl Championship ring with the Chicago Bears and Butler went on to a Pro Bowl career with the Buffalo Bills. Dwight Clark was the "other" Clemson receiver. He had his number retired by the San Francisco 49ers and is the only former Clemson player to be the MVP of the NFL (1982).

- Notre Dame featured tight end Ken MacAfee and defensive end Ross Browner, who are now in the College Football Hall of Fame, All-American linebacker Bob Golic and junior quarterback Joe Montana.

- The media interest in the game was like no other at Clemson at the time and is topped only by the Bowden Bowl of 1999 when Clemson played host to college football's first Division I meeting of father and son head coaches. Forty-five different newspapers had media covering the 1977 Clemson vs. Notre Dame game, including the New York Times, Chicago Tribune, Dallas Morning News, Philadelphia Inquirer. Neither ESPN nor USA Today had started at the time. Thirteen scouts from eight different bowls attended.

- Notre Dame was ranked fifth in both polls entering this game, but had a loss on its resume at Mississippi in the second game of the year. But the Irish were on a hot streak coming to Death Valley having beaten then fifth-ranked Southern Cal, 49-19, and Georgia Tech, 69-13, over the last two games. Tech's loss was its worst since a 73-0 loss to Clemson and head coach John Heisman in 1903.

- Despite the loss, Clemson gained more national respect for its overall program than any of its previous seven victories. The national media was impressed with Clemson's ability to compete with the team that would go on to win the national championship. The following Tuesday when the polls came out, Clemson remained No. 15 in the nation, still the only time in school history Clemson has lost a game but did not drop in the polls.

- Ross Browner had four tackles for loss in the game for Notre Dame, the Clemson opponent record in Memorial Stadium until Jadeveon Clowney broke it for South Carolina in 2012 with 4.5.

- This was the only close game Notre Dame had over its last eight games. Notre Dame beat Clemson by four and the other seven opponents by an average of 36.7 points a game, including previous No. 1 Texas, 38-10 in the Cotton Bowl.

- The 1977 game also had a positive effect on Clemson's recruiting. Terry Kinard and Jeff Davis, who are now both in the College Football Hall of Fame, were on official visits for that game, as was future All-American Perry Tuttle. It is the only signee class for an ACC program that brought in two future College Football Hall of Famer.

Game Summary

Clemson held a 10-7 lead at intermission and the lead could have been larger. The Tigers held a 213-101 advantage in total offense and Fuller was on fire in the first 30 minutes, hitting 9-12 passes for 124 yards. Montana was held to 3-9 passing for 53 yards by the Clemson defense by intermission.

The third period was more Clemson. On the Tigers first possession, Fuller hit Warren Ratchford for a 35-yard completion. Four plays later Lester Brown scored around left end from two yards out, a play that drew the ire of Notre Dame coach Dan Devine because an official had gotten in the way of Notre Dame defensive back Ted Burgmeier as he was trying to make the tackle.

It was still 17-7 Clemson entering the fourth period when Montana led Notre Dame on one of his famous comebacks. On the last drive of the third period, which continued into the fourth, Montana led the Irish on a drive that actually gained 119 yards in total offense.

Devine picked up an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty when he went on the field and picked up a flag that negated a 30-yard run by Vagas Ferguson. It set up a second-and-31, but Montana overcame his coach's tirade, hitting MacAfee for 27 yards then 16 yards on fourth-and-two. Montana finished off the drive with a one-yard run to make it 17-14.

After a Clemson turnover, Notre Dame got the ball back at midfield. Montana had been saving a screen pass for a special occasion and he connected with Ferguson for 36 yards, bringing the ball to the Clemson 14. Montana scored later in the possession to make the count 21-17, Irish.

Clemson, who was going for its 100th all-time victory in Memorial Stadium, had two more possessions, but the Tigers could not get a first down and the Fighting Irish had escaped Death Valley with the four-point win, keeping alive Notre Dame's hopes for a National Championship.

Clemson 16, Notre Dame 10
Nov. 17, 1979 at Notre Dame Stadium
Game Notes

- Clemson was ranked 14th in the nation entering the game with a 7-2 record, while Notre Dame was unranked and 6-3, but had earlier won at Michigan and beaten South Carolina in Notre Dame Stadium in a thrilling 18-17 win over the George Rogers-led Gamecocks.

- Despite Notre Dame's 6-3 record at the time, the Irish still had a chance for a major bowl. It would be quite a resume builder for Danny Ford's program if the Tigers could get a win in their first game in Notre Dame Stadium, something only six other schools had done since the stadium opened in 1930. Plus it was Senior Day at Notre Dame and the Irish had lost just twice on Senior Day since 1940.

- The 1977 and 1979 Clemson vs. Notre Dame games were absolute opposites from a first-half total offense standpoint. While Clemson had a 112-yard edge in total offense and the lead at intermission in the 1977 game at Clemson, Notre Dame dominated the first half statistically in 1979 with 295 yards of total offense compared to just 108 for Clemson in gaining a 10-0 margin. Putting that total offense number in perspective, Clemson ranked second in the nation in scoring defense and sixth in total defense entering the game. Clemson had not given up 293 yards in an entire game prior to the Notre Dame game, then gave up 295 in the first half.

- Clemson ran the ball 74 times on this day, still the most by a Notre Dame opponent in Notre Dame Stadium. As a result of all the runs, Notre Dame linebacker Bob Crable had 26 tackles, still the most against Clemson and tied for the most by a Notre Dame player in any game.

- Looking back, the game was an indicator of future greatness for some young Clemson players and the program in general. Clemson's defense forced five turnovers on this day, and three of them were collected by future Hall of Fame players. Jeff Davis had a fumble recovery and Terry Kinard had two interceptions, both in the fourth quarter. It is still the last time a Clemson player had two fourth quarter interceptions in a game Clemson won by a touchdown or less. And, of course, Clemson would win the National Championship two years later.

- Clemson became just the seventh school to win its first trip to Notre Dame Stadium and just the second in the last 37 years.

Game Summary

Notre Dame had a 10-0 lead at halftime and briefly held a 16-0 lead for a few seconds. The Irish were up 10-0 in the second period when quarterback Rusty Lisch scored on a 10-yard run to make it 16-0. But, a holding call nullified the play. The Irish could not get the first down and when Chuck Male, who had won the Michigan game in the season opener, missed a 32-yard field goal, the score remained 10-0.

Danny Ford said many times that the first five minutes of the second half are the most important in a football game. That was the case in South Bend. Clemson had to punt on its first possession of the second half. Notre Dame return man Ty Dickerson fumbled David Sims' punt at the Notre Dame 21 and Chuck Rose recovered for Clemson.

It was the last time Dickerson would touch the ball in a Fighting Irish uniform. The Tigers drove to the Notre Dame four-yard line, but the drive stalled and Obed Ariri booted the first of his three field goals in the game.

The momentum had changed, as Notre Dame failed to move the ball and Dick Boushka punted to Hollis Hall. The Clemson defensive back tried to return the favor and fumbled, but he recovered his own fumble at the Clemson 18. Clemson then drove for another field goal by Ariri.

On the next Notre Dame possession, Ferguson, who would break George Gipp's 59-year Notre Dame record for 100-yard rushing games in a season on this day, fumbled on the first play after being hit by Bubba Brown, and sophomore Jeff Davis recovered for the Tigers.

Four plays later Billy Lott, who had a team-best 73 yards rushing on the day, kept the ball around right end (28 Counter Option) and raced 26 yards for a touchdown. It was Clemson's third score in its last three possessions and the Tigers had taken the lead, 13-10. The Tigers scored on a fourth straight possession after a 15-play drive that culminated with a 37-yard field goal by Ariri, giving Clemson a 16-10 lead.

There were still 8:30 left in the game, so Notre Dame had plenty of time, but just as turnovers had hurt Clemson in the game in Death Valley two years earlier, turnovers were the difference in this game.

The Irish drove to the Clemson 25 and had a third-and-nine, but Lisch's pass was deflected by Notre Dame receiver Tony Hunter and then intercepted by redshirt freshman safety Terry Kinard.

Clemson could not move the ball and Notre Dame got it back at its own 16 with 2:34 left. This time Devine called an end-around pass with Pete Holohan, who had been a high school quarterback. His long pass was intercepted by Kinard again and he returned it 40 yards to the Notre Dame 19.

On Clemson's second play, Lott fumbled the snap and freshman Mark Zavagnin recovered for the Irish with 2:02 left. It was Clemson's only turnover of the day. On Notre Dame's first play, Steve Durham sacked Lisch back at the Notre Dame two-yard-line. Three more passes were incomplete and Clemson ran out the clock for the 16-10 victory.

Clemson 24, Notre Dame 22
Oct. 3, 2015 at Memorial Stadium
Game Summary

Clemson battled sixth-ranked Notre Dame through torrential rains from Hurricane Joaquin under the lights. But the wet weather did not hold the Tigers back in a hard-fought 24-22 victory.

Deshaun Watson led the Tigers to an explosive start. First, he had a 38-yard run on the first offensive play of the game, then culminated the possession with a touchdown pass to Jordan Leggett. Clemson took an early 14-0 lead with another Watson touchdown, this time a 13-yarder to Artavis Scott. Clemson held a 14-3 lead at intermission.

On the opening kickoff of the second half, Ammon Lakip, Clemson's kicker, jarred the ball loose from C.J. Sanders. The Tigers recovered and Watson led the Tigers on another touchdown drive. He completed the drive with a 21-yard touchdown run to give Clemson a commanding 21-3 lead.

DeShone Kizer led the Irish back and would throw for 321 yards for the game, 216 more than Watson for the night. He threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to C.J. Prosise on a wheel route, then scored another touchdown himself on a three-yard run.

The Fighting Irish pulled within two at 24-22 on a touchdown by Torii Hunter Jr., but Deshone Kizer's designed quarterback run was stuffed by Carlos Watkins and Kevin Dodd, and Clemson survived the furious rally.

Watson accounted for three scores, while rushing for 93 yards. Wayne Gallman continued his strong start, with 23 carries for 111 yards.

Clemson held Prosise to 50 yards rushing in 15 attempts and his longest run all night was 10 yards. He came in averaging 150 yards a game on the ground. Will Fuller, who entered the game averaging 113 receiving yards and had scored six touchdowns, had just two receptions for 37 yards. Mackensie Alexander, now with the Minnesota Vikings, aided Clemson's defensive success against one of the nation's top receivers.

Following the contest, Dodd was named ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week and B.J. Goodson earned ACC Linebacker of the Week honors. Dodd posted 3.5 tackles for loss, with two sacks and a forced fumble. Goodson had two takeaways in the fourth quarter, the first Tiger to do so in a game won by seven points or less since Terry Kinard, who also did it against Notre Dame, in 1979.

A LOOK BACK AT THE 2015 MATCHUP

Twelve current Clemson players and nine current Notre Dame players participated in the 2015 game between the two schools.

Clemson: Mitch Hyatt, Trevion Thompson, Mark Fields, Garrett Williams, Justin Falcinelli, Hunter Renfrow, Jalen Williams, Christian Wilkins, Milan Richard, Cannon Smith, Austin Bryant and Greg Huegel. Hyatt and Huegel both started.

Notre Dame: Nic Weishar, Alize Mack, Te'von Coney, Justin Yoon, Nick Coleman, Nicco Fertitta, Alex Barns, Tyler Newsome, and Jerry Tillery. Weishar was the only active Notre Dame player to start in 2015 against the Tigers. Bars is on the roster but out for the season with an injury.

A look to the participation chart from the 2015 Clemson vs. Notre Dame game reveals that 27 of the 44 starters in the game played in the NFL and 35 total players in that game have been or are still on NFL rosters. That list should grow next year, as 21 players who played in that 2015 game are still at one of the two schools. That number is just one short of the total number of future NFL players who participated in the 1977 game when 36 future pros played.

Fourteen Notre Dame starters and 13 Clemson starters made NFL rosters after playing in that game. Notre Dame's 14 players included four first-round draft picks. Three of the five Notre Dame offensive line starters (Ronnie Stanley, Quenton Nelson and Mike Mc-Glinchey) would be top 10 picks in the NFL draft. A fourth, Nick Martin, was a second-round selection.

Included below is the list of future NFL players for each team in the 2015 game.

Notre Dame (18 players, 14 starters): Ronnie Stanley (Ravens), Quenton Nelson (Colts), Nick Martin (Texans), Mike McGlinchey (49ers), DeShone Kizer (Packers), C.J. Prosise (Seahawks), Will Fuller (Texans), Romeo Okwara (Lions), Sheldon Day (49ers), Isaac Rochell (Chargers), Jaylon Smith (Cowboys) James Onwalu (49ers), Kai Russell (Bengals), Cole Luke (Panthers), Matthias Farley (Colts), Equanimeous St. Brown (Packers), Andrew Trumbetti (Bears), Josh Adams (Eagles)

Clemson (17 players, 13 starters): Jordan Leggett (Jets), Deshaun Watson (Texans), Deon Cain (Colts), Artavis Scott (Chargers), Charone Peake (Jets), Kevin Dodd (Titans), Carlos Watkins (Texans), Shaq Lawson (Bills), B.J. Goodson (Giants), Mackensie Alexander (Vikins), Jayron Kearse (Vikins), T.J. Green (Colts), Cordrea Tankersley (Dolphins), Dorian O'Daniel (Chiefs), Wayne Gallman (Giants), Ray-Ray McCloud (Bills), Taylor Hearn (Panthers)

GOING STREAKING

Clemson is on a 13-game winning streak, with all 13 coming this season. Central Florida (25), Alabama (15), Clemson (13) and Notre Dame (13) are the only schools with active streaks of at least 10 games.

Clemson's current 13-game winning streak marks the program's 10th all-time winning streak of at least 10 games. Recently, Clemson had a 17-game winning streak from 2014-15 that remains the longest in school history. Alabama ended that streak in the 2015 season National Championship game.

The current streak marks the third time Dabo Swinney has had a winning streak of at least 10 games. Danny Ford had three separate streaks of at least 10 games, including a 13-game streak from 1980 through the last game of the 1981 season.

Frank Howard had a 15-game winning streak from 1947-49 and was part of a 13-game streak from 1939-40. The first 10-game winning streak took place under John Heisman from 1899 to 1901.

ALL-TIME ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Clemson claimed its 18th ACC championship in school history in 2018, the most in the history of the conference. Florida State ranks second with 15.

Clemson became the first ACC program to win four consecutive ACC titles outright. Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning four straight titles outright. The four consecutive titles also set a Clemson school record, passing three-year streaks from 1965-67 and 1986-88.

Clemson has 24 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC.

J. Henderson accomplished the feat in 2001. Including Trevor Lawrence winning the ACC's overall Rookie of the Year honor, Clemson became the first to sweep those five honors since Florida State in 1997 (Bobby Bowden, Andre Wadsworth, Thad Busby, and Travis Minor).

ROUTING RANKED OPPONENTS

Clemson's 41-7 thrashing of No. 16 NC State in October tied for the second-largest margin of victory against an AP Top 25 team in school history, trailing only the school's 35-point victory against Miami in the 2017 ACC Championship. Two of Clemson's 12 wins of 20 points or more against AP Top 25 opponents have come this season.

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson enters Saturday's contest against Notre Dame having won each of its last 29 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl.

You have to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 778 days prior to the Cotton Bowl, for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday.

Clemson's 29-game Saturday winning streak is the longest active streak in the FBS. In total, Clemson has won 50 of its last 51 Saturday games. The Tigers' current 29-game streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

AVERAGE YARDAGE DIFFERENTIAL

Clemson has outgained its opponents by an average of 253.1 yards per game this season, more than 20 yards ahead of top-ranked Alabama for the largest average yardage differential in the country. Clemson and Alabama are the only two schools in the country outgaining opponents by 200 or more yards per game.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS

"The explosive play is alive and well in our offense."

That was the exact quote from Head Coach Dabo Swinney early in the season following a Sept. 15 victory against Georgia Southern. Improving the team's explosiveness and ability to create chunk plays had been a primary focus for the offense leading up to the 2018 season, and that focus has paid off thus far this season.

2018 EXPLOSIVE PLAYS BY DISTANCE

| 20+ | 90 | T-3 |
| 30+ | 50 | 3 |
| 40+ | 30 | 2 |

| 60+ | 10 | T-4 |

Of Clemson's 30 plays of 40 yards or more this season, the Tigers have accounted for 18 through the air and 12 on the ground. Clemson has 19 plays of 50 yards or more, with a split of 10 passing and nine rushing.

Clemson's explosiveness has helped put the 2018 squad in the Top 10 in the nation in yards per play and on pace for a school record in that category.

RED ZONE SUCCESS

In addition to the explosive element, a portion of Clemson's success this year has been the effectiveness of the offense in the red zone. In 66 possessions inside the opponent's 20, Clemson has 60 scores, including 52 touchdowns and eight field goals. The 52 total touchdowns are most in the nation, and Clemson's red zone touchdown percentage of 78.8 percent ranks fourth in the country.

Clemson has scored 385 points on 66 red zone possessions so far this year, 5.83 points per possession, Clemson's top mark under Dabo Swinney. Swinney's previous best was 5.76 points per red zone possession in 2012. That year, Clemson led the nation in scoring percentage in the red zone at 94.9 percent.

Clemson has been balanced when it comes to scoring in the red zone with 32 rushing touchdowns and 20 passing touchdowns, ranking Clemson third in rushing and tied for fifth in passing in those categories.

Clemson is 40-59 for 293 yards with 20 touchdowns and no interceptions for a 221.37 passing efficiency through the air in the red zone. Clemson had just seven red zone touchdown passes a year ago. This season, quarterback Trevor Lawrence is 30-44 passing in the red zone with 15 touchdowns and no interceptions for a red zone passing efficiency of 225.54.

NATIONAL BEST IN YARDS PER CARRY

Long-time coaching cliches hold that, "we have to run the football and stop the run." Clemson has been outstanding in both areas this year.

Entering the bowl season, Clemson leads the nation in yards per rush on offense and fewest yards allowed per rush on defense. No team has led the nation in both categories in the same season over the last 10 years.

Clemson has gained 6.75 yards per rush, on pace to be a school record. It leads fellow playoff participant Oklahoma, which ranks second at 6.67 yards per carry. On defense, Clemson's 2.40 yards allowed per rush is first, ahead of Michigan State's 2.67 yards per rush allowed.

GROUND & POUND

A few hours after being called a finesse team by a national analyst, Clemson rushed for 471 yards in a 63-3 win at Wake Forest on Oct. 6. The rushing total represented the fourth-most yards on the ground in program history and the program's most in a single-game since the team's 1981 national championship season. That figure was later surpassed by Clemson's 492 rushing yards against Louisville.

Clemson's explosiveness and consistency in the running game has put the 2018 Tigers on pace to shatter the team record for yards-per-carry average.

YARDS PER CARRY (CLEMSON HISTORY)

| Rank | Year | No. |

| 1. | 2018 | 6.75 |

| 3. | 1950 | 5.25 |
| 4. | 1941 | 5.07 |
| 5. | 2015 | 4.93 |

Clemson enters this week having outrushed opponents by an average of 166.8 yards per game this season, the third-best differential in the country and the second-best in the Power Five. Clemson is the only non-triple-option team in the Top 4 in the category. Georgia Tech leads the Power Five in rushing differential per game; however, Clemson outrushed Georgia Tech by 102 yards in a 49-21 win on Sept. 22.

RUSHING YARDS PER GAME DIFFERENTIAL

| 1. Army | 12 | 3555 | 1298 | +188.1 |

| 5. Cincinnati | 12 | 2857 | 1245 | +134.3 |

Clemson's rushing prowess this season has not come at the expense of the team's passing game, as Clemson has featured one of the most balanced offenses in the nation. The Tigers average 259.8 yards per game rushing and 270.1 yards per game passing and are one of just three teams in the nation averaging at least 250 of each. The others are Central Florida and Oklahoma, who are a combined 24-1.

The 2018 squad is the first team in Clemson history to average at least 250 yards per game rushing and passing. Only two Clemson teams in history have averaged at least 200 yards per game of each in the same season (2000 and 2015).

250 RUSHING & PASSING YARDS PER GAME

#WRU

Clemson's status as an elite producer of pro talent has been inarguable in recent years, particularly at wide receiver, where the school has adopted the moniker of "Wide Receiver U" (or #WRU in hashtag form).

An independent analysis by TigerIllustrated.com in August highlighted Clemson's seven wide receivers drafted from 2013-18, the most from any school. It provides a legacy and a foundation upon which Clemson's talented 2018 receiving corps — one co-offensive coordinator Jeff Scott said contains nine plausible starters — to build.

"Get your cameras ready for this year and beyond. Because there's a good chance more history will be made," wrote TigerIllustrated's Larry Williams. "The headlines and cover stories now are about the defensive line. But celebrity status is fast approaching for these receivers."

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses, a trend that has carried into the 2018 season as well.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last four seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in three of those campaigns. Clemson enters this week's game against Pitt ranked in the Top 5 in the country in both total defense (276.7 yards per game, fourth) and scoring defense (13.7 points per game, second).

BEST TIGER DEFENSE OF THE ERA?

Clemson's 2018 defense has strong numbers across the board, numbers that are similar to its much-heralded 2014 unit when Clemson led the nation in 11 categories.

Clemson led the nation in total defense in 2014 (260.8). This year, Clemson is fourth in the nation with a 276.8 average. Clemson leads the nation in yards allowed per play at 4.08, and the 2014 team led the nation at 4.03 yards per attempt.

Clemson's 2014 defense averaged 3.46 sacks per game, an identical figure to the current unit.

STINGY STARTS

Prior to allowing three first-half touchdowns to South Carolina in the regular season finale, Clemson surrendered only three first-half touchdowns in its first 11 games of 2018 (including only two on defense).

* First-half touchdowns allowed; ^ CU-Opp; Note: Since 2017.

Clemson shut out opponents in the first half five times this season, including a three-game streak against Wake Forest, NC State and Florida State.

Clemson's defensive efforts in the first half were particularly pronounced at home. Until Syracuse rushed for a one-yard touchdown with 7:31 remaining in the second quarter on Sept. 29, Clemson had not allowed a first-half touchdown at Memorial Stadium since Nov. 12, 2016 vs. Pittsburgh. That marked 686 days between first-half touchdowns allowed at Death Valley, covering 309:52 of game play.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

Clemson returned a school-record 61 letterman for the 2018 season, making this year's roster the most veteran team in Tiger annals by that measure. However, that experience has not prohibited the team's talented class of first-year freshmen from making an immediate impact this season.

Thirteen first-year freshmen (Xavier Thomas, Justyn Ross, Derion Kendrick, K.J. Henry, Trevor Lawrence, Kyler McMichael, Lyn-J Dixon, B.T. Potter, Mario Goodrich, Jordan McFadden, Jackson Carman, Max May and Braden Galloway) appeared in Clemson's season opener against Furman, matching the team's most in a single game in school history set previously against Wofford in the 2015.

A 14th first-year freshman, quarterback Ben Batson, made his debut at Wake Forest. Mike Jones, Justin Mascoll, Drew Swinney and Jake Venables pushed that number to 18 by making their collegiate debuts against NC State. Carson Donnelly and Darnell Jefferies extended the figure to 20 with their debuts against Louisville.

Clemson's 20 first-year freshmen to appear in game action this season are the program's most in a year since 1982.

ALL-ACC PERFORMERS

On Nov. 26, the Atlantic Coast Conference announced that 18 members of Clemson's team have earned first-, second-, or third-team all-conference honors for their performance during the team's 12-0 regular season. An additional three members collected honorable mention selections.

Clemson's 18 selections on the three teams represent the most in school history, surpassing the 17 Tigers honored in 2015.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2018 roster has many connections to college and professional football. Below is a list of the connections:

- Tremayne Anchrum, OL: His father, Tremayne, played college basketball at Southern California.
- Ben Batson, QB: Son of Clemson strength and conditioning coach Joey Batson.
- J.C. Chalk, TE: Grandson of former Alabama coach Gene Stallings, who was Dabo Swinney's head coach at Alabama when Swinney was a player.

GRADUATION SUCCESS

The roster from the first day of Clemson's 2018 preseason camp featured 17 players that had already earned their degrees from Clemson University. The figure more than doubled the previous high under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, who previously had eight graduates on his rosters on multiple occasions.

The graduates on Clemson's 2018 camp roster included Kelly Bryant, Adam Choice, Kyle Cote, J.D. Davis, Judah Davis, Justin Falcinelli, Pat Godfrey, Kendall

Joseph, Chris Register, Hunter Renfrow, Milan Richard, Chad Smith, Alex Spence, Trevion Thompson, Christian Wilkins, Jalen Williams and Richard Yeargin.

Clemson's 17 graduates were among the most on any FBS roster as of Sept. 4.

Note: As of Sept. 4.

Over the last seven years Clemson has finished in the top 10 percent in APR scores among FBS teams and in the top 25 of the final polls six times.

That includes the 2017-18 academic year when Clemson finished fourth on the field in the polls and fifth in APR score with a 987. It was the first time a College Football Playoff team has finished in the top five of the APR.

Last year marked the third time in the last six years that Clemson finished in the top 10 of APR and the top 10 on the field in at least one of the polls.

FRONT FOUR

Neither short on personality nor on production, Clemson returns all four starters on its defensive line in 2018. The group, known affectionately as the Power Rangers following the unit's Halloween costumes of choice in 2016, includes ends Austin Bryant and Clelin Ferrell and tackles Dexter Lawrence and Christian Wilkins.

The group's return alone made college football history. Clemson's 2018 squad will be the first in the sport's history to feature four returning All-Americans on the defensive line.

Ferrell two sacks each in wins against Texas A&M and Georgia Southern in September, becoming the first Clemson player since Vic Beasley in 2014 to reach 2.0 sacks in consecutive games. His production has added to one of the most prolific career pass rushing totals in college football, as he now ranks fifth among active FBS players in career sacks and is climbing Clemson's all-time leaderboard in that category.

ETIENNE CARRYING THE LOAD

As a freshman, when you evoke the names of Clemson legends C.J. Spiller and Sammy Watkins, you're doing something right. Travis Etienne did just that in his true freshman season in 2017.

In his debut year, Etienne averaged 7.16 yards per carry on 107 attempts, the fourth-best rushing average in school history and the most by a Clemson freshman since C.J. Spiller in 2006.

The 2018 Doak Walker Award Finalist also tied a school record for total touchdowns by a freshman, matching Sammy Watkins' mark of 13 set in 2011.

Etienne's efficiency carried into his sophomore season in 2018, as he and freshman teammate Lyn-J Dixon have proven to be two of the most explosive backs in the country on average.

In the third game of the 2018 season against Georgia Southern, Etienne reached the 1,000-yard mark for his career on a 40-yard touchdown run. In reaching the 1,000-yard mark, he qualified for the school's all-time leaderboard for yards per carry. If he were to maintain his current 7.88-yard average, he would shatter the school's record for career rushing average of 5.92, set by Jackie Calvert from 1948-50. Sitting behind Etienne at third is his current backfield colleague, Tavien Feaster, who reached the 1,000-yard mark in the fourth game of 2018.

Running back Adam Choice joined Etienne and Feaster in the career 1,000-yard club in the eighth game of the season against Florida State. Clemson is one of seven schools to feature three active players with at least 1,000 career rushing yards.

Etienne's nose for the end zone reached historic levels against Syracuse, Wake Forest and NC State, as he became the first player in Clemson history to record three rushing touchdowns in three consecutive games, becoming only the fourth ACC player to accomplish the feat since 2000. He enters this week with 22 total touchdowns (21 rushing, one receiving), and his 10.2 points per game rank fifth in the country but third among non-kickers.

Despite averaging fewer than 14 carries per game, Etienne reached 1,000 rushing yards on the season on his 117th carry of the season, representing the fewest carries needed by any Clemson running back to reach the 1,000-yard mark in a single in school history. The feat came in his 10th game of the season, marking only the ninth time in school history that a Clemson player has rushed for 1,000 yards in a season in as few as 10 games.

HUEGEL AMONG SCORING LEADERS

All three phrases of the game — offense, defense and special teams — are represented by former All-Americans on Clemson's roster. Among the specialists, kicker Greg Huegel returns after an injury-truncated 2017 season hoping to reclaim that form that earned him second-team All-America status from Sports Illustrated in 2015.

The 2016 All-ACC selection already ranks in the Top 10 in school history in scoring, field goals made and extra points made. In the team's Sept. 8 road win at Texas A&M, he became only the third player in Clemson history to record 150 career PATs, and in the ACC Championship Game, he broke Chandler Catanzaro's career school record for PATs.

HYATT SETS RECORD FOR SNAPS

While the return of the members of Clemson's bally-hooed defensive line generated a majority of the team's offseason headlines, Clemson's offensive line returned its own first-team All-American in left tackle Mitch Hyatt. In July, Hyatt was the leading vote-getter in the preseason All-ACC selection process, appearing on a conference-high 130 of 148 possible ballots, 28 more votes than ACC Preseason Player of the Year AJ Dillon.

Hyatt, a three-year letterman out of Suwanee, Ga., entered the 2018 campaign with 43 games, 42 starts and 2,885 snaps to his credit, helping Clemson to an ACC title and College Football Playoff berth in each of his first three seasons. Against Louisville, he broke Clemson's all-time record for career snaps from scrimmage.

LAWRENCE SUPERB AS FRESHMAN

Between the explosive debuts of C.J. Spiller, Sammy Watkins and Deshaun Watson, Clemson has had no shortage of superlative freshmen in the last dozen years. In 2018, true freshman quarterback Trevor Lawrence has made his case to be considered among that illustrious group.

Lawrence is only the second true freshman and fourth freshman overall in Clemson history to record double-digit touchdown passes.

PASSING TDS BY A TIGER FIRST-YEAR FRESHMAN

| Rk | Player | Season | TD |
|---|---|---|---|

In addition to being tied for the ACC lead in passing touchdowns, Lawrence leads the nation in passing touchdowns among freshmen despite not starting any of the Tigers' first four contests and not finishing seven of his nine starts. His production despite his limited action earned him a selection as a semifinalist for the 2018 Davey O'Brien Award.

NATIONAL FRESHMAN PASSING TOUCHDOWN LEADERS

| Rk | Player | School | TD |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1. | Trevor Lawrence | Clemson | 22 |
| 2. | Desmond Ridder | Cincinnati | 19 |
| 3. | Alan Bowman | Texas Tech | 17 |
| | Adrian Martinez | Nebraska | 17 |
| 5. | Sam Hartman | Wake Forest | 16 |
| | Brock Purdy | Iowa State | 16 |

Lawrence made his first career start against Syracuse, becoming only the sixth true freshman to start at quarterback for Clemson all-time, joining Steve Fuller (1975), Willie Jordan (1975), Patrick Sapp (1992), Nealon Greene (1994) and Deshaun Watson (2014). Against Louisville, he earned his fifth win as a starter, breaking Watson's school record for most wins as a true freshman starting quarterback, a shattered record upon which Lawrence continues to build.

QUARTERBACK COMPARISON

After leading Clemson to the College Football Playoff and a 13-0 record, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has compared Trevor Lawrence's intangibles to those of national championship-winning quarterback Deshaun Watson. Lawrence's statistics are close — and even better — in some areas than Watson's in 2016 when he led Clemson to the National Championship. Both players ranked 19th in the nation in passing efficiency.

A look to the chart below shows that Lawrence has a better efficiency rating, a better touchdown/interception ratio and higher yards per pass attempt figure.

RENFROW MR. CONSISTENCY

While one specific catch made by Hunter Renfrow during 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship Game will live in Clemson lore forever, few in the history of Clemson Football have hauled in receptions with as much regularity as Renfrow.

Renfrow has recorded at least one reception in the last 41 consecutive games in which he appeared. (Note: Renfrow missed four games in 2016 with a hand injury). With his 39th game in the streak against Duke, Renfrow can broke Artavis Scott's school record for consecutive games with a reception.

Since joining the program as a walk-on, Renfrow production has been matched in magnitude only by the perceived improbability of his success. He won the 2018 Burlsworth Trophy, which honored the nation's top college player who started his career as a walk-on.

Against Syracuse, Renfrow became only the 10th player in school history to record 150 career receptions. During the contest, he also surpassed Perry Tuttle for ninth on the team's career receptions list. Tuttle and Renfrow will always be linked in Clemson lore as the recipients of game-winning touchdown passes to secure the program's national championships in 1981 and 2016, respectively.

RECORD-SETTING RENFROW

Despite his background, Hunter Renfrow holds some prominent records in the history of the College Football Playoff. Renfrow's 10 catches for 92 yards and two touchdowns still rank as the most receptions in a CFP game. He has twice had a record-tying two touchdown receptions in a CFP game. His 31 career receptions are also a record, as are his five career touchdown catches.

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

Since the program's inception in 1896, Clemson's strong coaching heritage across the 123 seasons of Clemson football dates to the early 1900s, when John Heisman led the program. Jess Neely, Frank Howard and Danny Ford continued the winning and joined Heisman in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Dabo Swinney has been at Clemson for just 11 years as head coach (10 in a full-time capacity), but he cemented himself as a coaching legend when he led the Tigers to the 2016 national championship, the second in school history (1981).

Swinney's Clemson legacy and his reputation as one of the game's premier leaders was only further solidified by another exemplary campaign in 2018. Entering the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic, Swinney's Tigers are 13-0 for only the second time in school history (2015) and are a victory away from matching the school record for wins (14 in 2015 and 2016).

The 2018 season was historic for Clemson in a number of capacities. Citing the team as his most experienced and senior-laden in his tenure in Clemson, Swin-ney and his staff deftly integrated a string of impact newcomers to his established corps of contributors. Four games into the season, he entrusted the starting quarterback position to true freshman Trevor Lawrence, who won ACC Rookie of the Year in helping Clemson win his nine starts by an average margin of 34 points per game, all in ACC regular season or postseason play. Swinney's decision to transition to the freshman helped him earn the Woody Hayes Award from the Touchdown Club of Columbus and collect his second career ACC Coach of the Year selection. He is also a finalist for the 2018 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year award from the FWAA and a semifinalist for the 2018 George Munger Award from the Maxwell Football Club.

Clemson's 2018 squad secured the program's 18th all-time ACC championship (its 24th overall in any conference) in program history. In doing so, Swinney's Tigers became the first program ever to win four consecutive outright ACC titles, winning four straight crowns from 2015-18 to become the first Power Five program to win four consecutive conference championship games since the 1993-96 Florida Gators. The group also won Clemson's 100th game of the decade, marking Clemson's first time reaching the century mark in any decade and making the Tigers only the third program to 100 wins in the 2010s.

In 2017, the Tigers maintained their elite status a year after the 2016 national championship despite having only six scholarship seniors and losing most of their offensive firepower from 2016. The 2017 season might have been some of Swinney's finest work, as he was named a finalist for the AP, Bear Bryant, Bobby Dodd, Eddie Robinson and George Munger Coach-of-the-Year Awards.

Offensively, Swinney had to replace players who accounted for 77 percent of the offense during the 2016 national championship season.

While Clemson was ranked No. 5 in the preseason AP poll, few expected the Tigers to be ranked No. 1 in both polls and the College Football Playoff ranking entering the bowl season. In fact, Clemson was not even the preseason choice to win the ACC Atlantic Division. But the Tigers won that title for the third year in a row (a first for the program since 1986-88).

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

Despite the setback in the Sugar Bowl to the eventual national champion, Alabama, Clemson finished ranked No. 4 in both polls. Swinney joined Bobby Bowden as the only ACC head coaches to lead a program to a final top-five ranking three straight years. After the season, he was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

Clemson's school-record six wins over top-25 teams, also a national best, included a school-record four on opponents' home fields and five away from home. Clemson defeated top-15 teams Auburn, Louisville and Virginia Tech in September, the first team in FBS history to record three top-15 wins in September.

While many focused on the play of the offense, led by quarterback Kelly Bryant, the defense was once again among the nation's best. The front four featured three players who earned first-team All-America honors. All four made at least one all-conference team as well.

The defense featured four players who were named All-American, and they were a big reason Clemson was in the top four in the nation in scoring defense (No. 2) and total defense (No. 4). Clemson led the ACC in the four major defensive categories (scoring, total, rushing, passing), something it had never done.

Clemson defeated the top-two teams in the national polls in consecutive games in the College Football Playoff at the end of the 2016 season. The Tigers blanked Ohio State 31-0 in the Fiesta Bowl, the first shutout suffered by head coach Urban Meyer in his career and the first for Ohio State since 1993.

The Tigers then earned a rematch with No. 1 Alabama, and for the first time in school history took down the top-ranked team in a second epic battle with the Crimson Tide. Deshaun Watson's touchdown pass to Hunter Renfrow with one second left gave Clemson a 35-31 win in Tampa, Fla. Swinney won the Bear Bryant Award as national coach-of-the-year for the second consecutive season.

With a preseason No. 2 national ranking, the 2016 Tigers lived up to the hype after compiling a 14-1 record and earning a spot in the College Football Playoff for the second-straight year. Along the way, Clemson knocked off five top-25 foes, including No. 3 Louisville. The Tigers exorcised several road demons, winning at historically tough places Auburn, Georgia Tech and Florida State.

Swinney coached Watson to two record-setting seasons. The two-time Heisman Trophy finalist became the first player in FBS history to total 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season in 2015, and he followed by setting an ACC record with 41 passing touchdowns in 2016.

Watson was named ACC Player-of-the-Year in 2015 and MVP of the ACC Championship Game in both 2015 and 2016. He won the Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award in back-to-back seasons and was named MVP of Clemson's Fiesta Bowl and national championship game wins.

From 2011-17, Clemson compiled an 82-15 record, the most wins in a seven-year period in school history. Fifty-three of the victories came against ACC teams. The 2017 seniors had a school and ACC-record 50 wins as well.

Clemson was in the top 10 of APR scores and the final top 25 of the AP and USA Today polls from 2011-15, the only FBS program that could make that claim. In 2017, Clemson became the first school to reach the College Football Playoff and finish in the top five of APR scores in the same year.

In 10 years (nine full seasons) as the Tigers' head coach, Swinney has directed Clemson to a 101-30 overall record (.771, best by a Tiger coach) and 61-16 ACC regular-season mark (.792). He has also led the Tigers to the ACC Championship Game five times, won four ACC titles, won or shared six ACC Atlantic Division titles and won seven bowl games (five against top-10 teams). His teams have compiled 26 wins over ranked teams in his head-coaching career, including 13 over top-10 opponents.

Swinney guided Clemson to the No. 1 national ranking in every College Football Playoff poll in 2015 and led the Tigers to their first national championship game appearance under the new format after his team defeated Oklahoma 37-17 in the 2015 Orange Bowl. The Tigers led Alabama in the fourth quarter of the championship contest, but came up just short (45-40) in an epic game in Glendale, Ariz.

The Tigers beat four teams that finished the year in the top 15 of both polls. Following the team's 14-1 record and No. 2 final ranking, he was the recipient of 10 national and two ACC coach-of-the-year honors.

In 2015, a Tiger-record 17 players were named to one of three All-ACC teams, including all five starting offensive linemen for the first time in Clemson history. In 2016, 15 players were honored, including a school-

PERSONAL DATA
Born Nov. 20, 1969 in Birmingham, Ala. ... married to the former Kathleen Bassett ... the couple has three sons (Will, Drew, Clay).

Tiger head coach to win a national coach-of-the-year award since 1981, when Ford directed Clemson to the national title.

Swinney became just the second Tiger coach to lead Clemson's program to a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Tommy Bowden. The 2010 schedule was one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams were on the regular-season slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25.

In 2009, Swinney's first full year as head coach, he led the Tigers to their first championship of the ACC Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC coach-of-the-year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach-of-the-Year award.

In October 2008, Swinney was named Clemson's interim head coach, replacing Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and was Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record during the remainder of the 2008 regular season, including a win over South Carolina in the regular-season finale. That strong finish led to a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On Dec. 1, 2008, the interim tag was removed from the title and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970, and those coaches had combined for a record of 26-86-2. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as head coach, he became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to reorganize his staff and regroup his team and the fanbase in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk."

Swinney has demonstrated his community involvement through Dabo's All In Team Foundation, which made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for former Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich. Many schools followed his lead during the remainder of the season.

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his first 15 years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers finished in the top 25 of the polls 11 times and totaled 29 wins over top-25 teams, including victories over Florida State (7), Virginia Tech (3), Auburn (2), Miami (Fla.) (2), Ohio State (2), Oklahoma (2), Alabama (1), Georgia (1), Louisiana State (1) and Tennessee (1) during his tenure in Tigertown.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wide receiver finish first or second in the ACC in receptions in five of his six seasons as an assistant coach. In his first season, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the ACC, a first in Clemson history. He has coached a First or Second-Team All-ACC wideout (Derrick Hamilton, Airese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Jacoby Ford, Sammy Watkins, DeAndre Hopkins, Artavis Scott, Mike Williams, Tee Higgins) in 14 of his 16 seasons in Tigertown, also unprecedented at Clemson.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the No. 5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated No. 2 in the nation by ESPN when he signed 11 players.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position at Clemson on Oct. 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet," because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in the 1989 season. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players, as Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 national championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowl appearances came after winning the SEC title game.

After his playing career, Swinney served as a graduate assistant at Alabama from 1993-95. In December 1995, he received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February 1996 under head coach Gene Stallings and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. Swinney was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC West Division title. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three seasons. At the end of the 1999 campaign, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship Game.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with double-digit wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC championships (1989,92,99) and five SEC West Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach.

Swinney married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will (20), Drew (18) and Clay (15). Will is a sophomore and Drew is a freshman on the 2018 Tiger football team.

seasons over teams whose head coaches had previously won the national title. He upped that mark to five years in a row in 2016.

Clemson capped off the 2013 season with a thrilling 40-35 victory over No. 6 Ohio State in the Orange Bowl. Clemson had an 11-2 record after finishing 7-1 in ACC regular-season games. It marked Clemson's first back-to-back 11-win seasons in school history. For the fourth time in his first five full seasons as head coach, Swinney was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach-of-the-Year award in 2013.

The 2012 season (11-2) was a groundbreaking year for Swinney's Tigers when looking at the overall consistency of the program. The seven conference wins in the regular season were then a school record, while Clemson was co-champion of the ACC Atlantic Division.

With Clemson's thrilling 25-24 win over No. 7 Louisiana State in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl, the Tigers finished the season ranked No. 9 in the USA Today poll. It was Clemson's first top-10 finish in one of the two major polls since 1990. Clemson also reached the 11-win mark for the first time since its 1981 national championship season. The Tigers finished No. 14 in the final BCS standings as well.

Swinney's 2011 squad, which ended the season ranked No. 22 in the nation, captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it beat No. 3 Virginia Tech 38-10 in the ACC Championship Game in Charlotte, N.C. The Tigers' second win over the Hokies in 2011 gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990.

For his efforts, Swinney was named Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year in 2011 to become the first CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 2 Clemson opened its 2018 campaign in dominant fashion, defeating the Furman Paladins by a score of 48-7 at Memorial Stadium.

Offensively, the Tigers amassed 531 yards, leading a balanced attack that eclipsed 250 passing yards and 250 rushing yards on the day. On the defensive side of the ball, the Tigers limited the Paladins to just 2.6 yards per play and 163 total yards.

The Tigers opened the scoring midway through the first quarter on a Kelly Bryant 40-yard touchdown pass to Amari Rodgers, marking the first career score for the sophomore wideout. Bryant would later add a 35-yard rushing touchdown as well, while Rodgers would finish the contest with a career-high 141 all-purpose yards, including 87 yards on two punt returns.

Freshman quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw three touchdown passes in his debut, hitting Diondre Overton, Justyn Ross and Braden Galloway for touchdowns in the second, third and fourth quarters, respectively.

Clemson's shutout bid was denied with just over a minute remaining in the game, when Furman scored on a 16-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Darren Grainger to Ryan DeLuca.

Clemson kicker Greg Huegel recorded 11 points in his return from a knee injury, connecting on two field goals (including a career-high-tying 49-yarder) and five of the team's six PATs on the day.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas — No. 2 Clemson hung on through a back-and-forth second half for a 28-26 victory over the Texas A&M Aggies at Kyle Field.

Texas A&M still got on the board first, when kicker Daniel LaCamera hit a 40-yarder to give his squad a 3-0 lead 10 minutes into the game. However, the Tigers answered on the ensuing drive, with Bryant scoring on a one-yard run.

Clemson upped its lead to 14-3 with less than a minute gone in the second quarter, when Tee Higgins hauled in a 64-yard touchdown pass from Trevor Lawrence on the freshman quarterback's first play of the night behind center. The Clemson defense blocked a Texas A&M 50-yard field goal attempt with just over five minutes left in the first half to take a 14-3 lead into the break.

Clemson led 21-6 following an eight-yard Bryant scoring pass to Diondre Overton, but the teams traded touchdowns to enter the fourth quarter at 28-13 in favor of Clemson. The rest of the game saw Texas A&M bookend the fourth quarter with a pair of touchdowns, with the latter one coming with just 46 seconds remaining in the matchup and cutting the Clemson lead to just two points. However, safety K'Von Wallace intercepted the Aggie two-point conversion attempt and wide receiver Hunter Renfrow recovered an onside kick attempt to secure the 28-26 victory in front of the largest crowd ever to witness a game in Clemson history.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 2 Clemson improved to 3-0 with a 38-7 win against the Georgia Southern Eagles at Memorial Stadium. The game was played in front of an announced crowd of 79,844 people despite kickoff being moved up three-and-a-half hours because of complications with Hurricane Florence in the mid-Atlantic region.

The teams played to a scoreless tie in the first quarter, as Clemson drives of eight plays, 13 plays and five plays ended in an interception, missed field goal and fumble, respectively. However, Clemson's offense got going in the second quarter, with a pair of one-yard touchdown runs by Travis Etienne and Tavien Feaster bookending a 57-yard touchdown pass from Trevor Lawrence to Justyn Ross to give Clemson a 21-0 lead at halftime.

Clemson added a 37-yard field goal and surrendered its only touchdown in the third quarter before touchdown runs by Etienne (40 yards) and Adam Choice (10 yards) pushed the final score to 38-7.

Etienne finished the contest with a career-high 163 yards on 16 carries. The Clemson offense totaled a season-high 595 yards, including 309 rushing yards and 286 passing yards.

Clemson's offensive balance was on display, as the Tigers rushed for 309 yards and threw for 286 yards, It marked the 36th time that Clemson had gained 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, with the Tigers remaining undefeated in such contests.

ATLANTA — No. 3/2 Clemson opened 2018 ACC play with a 49-21 win over the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets at Bobby Dodd Stadium in Atlanta. The win marked Clemson's fourth straight victory over Georgia Tech for just the third time in program history.

Offensively, Clemson was powered by Trevor Lawrence and his receiving corps, as the freshman quarterback completed 13-18 passes for 176 yards and four touchdowns to four different receivers. The Tiger defense did not allow a Yellow Jacket pass completion until late in the third quarter.

The Tigers scored the only points of the first quarter when Clelin Ferrell recovered a Yellow Jacket fumble in the endzone to give Clemson a 7-0 advantage. The second quarter saw Clemson score three times, with all three coming in the form of passing touchdowns by Lawrence.

Georgia Tech got on the board with just two minutes left in the opening half on an 11-yard rush by TaQuon Marshall. However, Clemson quickly got the score back on its third touchdown of the quarter, a three-yard pass from Lawrence to Travis Etienne, who pushed his way into the endzone in the final seconds of the half to bring the score to 28-7 at the break.

Clemson scored three times during the second half, with two coming courtesy of Tavien Feaster and Etienne on the ground, and the third when Tee Higgins hauled in a 30-yard scoring pass from Lawrence.

CLEMSON, S.C. — A Travis Etienne two-yard rushing score with 41 seconds remaining in the game proved to be the difference in the No. 3/2 Clemson's 27-23 win over the previously undefeated Syracuse Orange at Memorial Stadium.

Etienne's touchdown was the culmination of a 13-play, 94-yard drive led by redshirt freshman Chase Brice, who entered the game after quarterback Trevor Lawrence left with an injury in the second quarter. It was the longest drive authored by Clemson for a game-winning touchdown in the final minute in records dating back to 1958. It also came as part of Etienne's career-high 203-yard day on 27 carries with three rushing touchdowns.

After trailing 16-7 at the break on the strength of three field goals by Syracuse's Andre Szmyt and a touchdown run by Syracuse quarterback Eric Dungey, Clemson overcame a halftime deficit in a win for the first time since overcoming a 27-17 halftime deficit in a 38-31 win against NC State on Nov. 4, 2017. The Tigers also recorded their first victory when trailing after three quarters, Clemson's first since the National Championship game against Alabama during the 2016 season in which Clemson overcame a 24-14 fourth-quarter deficit in a 35-31 win.

The game marked only the fourth time in Memorial Stadium history that two undefeated teams had met four or more games into a season.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — Travis Etienne, Lyn-J Dixon and Adam Choice all eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark as the No. 4/4 Clemson Tigers amassed 698 total offensive yards en route to a 63-3 defeat of the Wake Forest Demon Deacons at BB&T Field.

Between Etienne, Dixon, Choice and three other rushers, Clemson ran for 471 yards, the team's most in a single game under head coach Dabo Swinney. Through the air, a balanced effort quarterbacked by Trevor Lawrence powered the Tigers. Lawrence completed 18 of his 21 pass attempts in the first half alone, connecting with nine different receivers to amass 173 yards and two touchdowns in the first 30 minutes.

The Tigers held a 7-0 advantage at the end of the first quarter courtesy of a 59-yard scoring run by Etienne. It was the first of six touchdowns of 50 yards or more by Clemson during the contest, including two by Etienne, two by Dixon, one by Choice and one by receiver Justyn Ross.

Clemson's 60-point win marked the largest margin of victory in an ACC game in school history. It also represented the second straight ACC road game in which Clemson played all 72 dressed players. Four different players appeared at quarterback for the Tigers, including starter Trevor Lawrence, quarterbacks Chase Brice and Ben Batson and wide receiver Hunter Renfrow.

MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 3 Clemson emerged victorious in a battle of unbeatens at Memorial Stadium, defeating the No. 16/15 NC State Wolfpack by a score of 41-7.

Offensively, Clemson was powered by Trevor Lawrence, who was 26-39 for 308 yards and one touchdown. Travis Etienne rushed for three touchdowns for the third straight game, a school first. The Tiger defense, led by Isaiah Simmons' 11 total tackles, held a Wolfpack offense that had been averaging 33 points per game to just the seven points.

The Tigers turned a 14-0 first quarter lead into a 24-0 halftime advantage after converting a Dexter Lawrence fumble recovery into an Etienne touchdown run and a K'Von Wallace interception into a Greg Huegel field goal.

The third quarter scoring opened with just under four minutes left in it, when Etienne ran for his third touchdown of the day, a one-yard rush that put the Tigers up 31-0. The Wolfpack got on the board on the first play of the fourth quarter, when a Reggie Gallaspy Jr. nine-yard rush cut the Tigers' lead to 31-7.

Huegel hit his second field goal of the day and 50th of his career, a 27-yarder, a few minutes later. A two-yard rushing touchdown for Lyn-J Dixon with eight minutes left in the game rounded out the scoring, bringing the final score to 41-7, tied for the second-largest margin of victory over an AP Top 25 team in school history.

OCT. 27, 2018
DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Freshman Trevor Lawrence threw for four touchdowns as No. 2 Clemson rolled to a 59-10 victory over Florida State.

Lawrence finished the game with a career-high 314 passing yards, connecting on 20-37 passes. The receiving duo of Amari Rodgers and Tee Higgins combined for four touchdowns and 218 yards, including a career-high 165 receiving yards by Rodgers. On the other side of the ball, the Clemson defense forced seven three-and-outs by Florida State and totaled 14 tackles for loss, including five sacks.

Clemson took a 14-0 lead on touchdown passes of seven and three yards from Lawrence to Higgins. Linebacker Tre Lamar later returned an interception 43 yards to set up a touchdown run by defensive tackle Christian Wilkins. Garrett Williams also scored on a two-yard touchdown run late in the first half.

It was the Amari Rodgers show in the third quarter as the sophomore recorded receiving touchdowns of 58 and 68 yards, respectively. A field goal by B.T. Potter and a five-yard connection from Chase Brice to T.J. Chase made the score 52-3 in Clemson's favor entering the fourth quarter.

In the fourth quarter, Adam Choice became the third Tiger — but first running back — to rush for a touchdown on the day, punching the ball into the end zone on a 15-yard run. A late FSU score brought the final to 59-10.

NOV. 3, 2018
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 2/2 Clemson produced a season-high 77 points as the Tigers handled the Louisville Cardinals in a 77-16 win at Memorial Stadium. The 61-point margin of victory was the Tigers' largest in school history in conference play, surpassing a 60-point win at Wake Forest earlier in the season.

The run game powered Clemson offensively, accounting for 492 of its 661 total yards, as Travis Etienne, Lyn-J Dixon and Tavien Feaster each eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark. On the defensive side of the ball, Kendall Joseph led the Tigers with 10 total tackles and 1.5 of Clemson's six sacks. Isaiah Simmons and Tanner Muse each intercepted a Cardinal pass, and Simmons returned his for a pick-six.

Ten different players accounted for Clemson's 11 touchdowns on the day. Clemson averaged a school-record 11.6 yards per play, breaking a record that had stood since 1903 (11.2 vs. Georgia Tech). Clemson also set a school record in yards per carry for the second time in 2018. The Tigers rushed for 13.3 yards per carry, surpassing the program record of 11.8, set earlier in the season at Wake Forest.

On his 19th snap of the game, left tackle Mitch Hyatt broke the Clemson record for career snaps from scrimmage, held previously by center Dalton Freeman.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. — No. 2 Clemson clinched the ACC Atlantic Division crown for the fourth consecutive season, defeating the No. 17/14 Boston College Eagles, 27-7.

Offensively, Trevor Lawrence quarterbacked a balanced effort, hitting 10 different receivers, including himself. Hunter Renfrow led the receiving corps with 80 yards on eight catches, both season highs. Defensively, the Tigers held the Boston College offense to just 113 years, including holding the Eagles 216 yards below their season rushing average.

Clemson opened the scoring on a 30-yard Greg Huegel field goal just under three minutes into the matchup, and it was Boston College that scored next when Michael Walker returned a Tiger punt 74 yards for a score. However, Lawrence connected with Milan Richard on a fourth-and-goal play to retake the lead for the Tigers before the quarter expired.

The second and third quarters saw Clemson add 10 points to its lead, with Huegel hitting his second field goal of the night, a 23-yarder, just over three minutes into the second quarter, and Lawrence finding the endzone with his feet on a six-yard touchdown run just over three minutes into the third quarter.

The Tigers took a 27-7 lead on an Amari Rodgers 53-yard punt return score with 11 minutes remaining in the game. WIth Rodgers answering Walker's punt return for touchdown earlier in the contest, the game marked the first time in Clemson history that both teams had returned a punt for a touchdown in a single game.

CLEMSON, S.C. – In the teams' first meeting since 2012, No. 2 Clemson defeated Duke, 35-6, on Senior Day and Military Appreciation Day at Memorial Stadium. The win was the 2018 senior class' ACC-record 51st win in the last four seasons.

Trevor Lawrence completed 21-38 pass attempts for 251 yards and two touchdowns, and his top target was Justyn Ross, who amassed 76 yards with a score on four receptions. Travis Etienne added 81 yards and two touchdowns in nine carries on the ground. Clelin Ferrell had a team-high two-and-a-half tackles for loss and two of the Tigers' four sacks.

Neither team found the endzone for the first 11 minutes of the game, and it was Duke that got on the board first on a 34-yard field goal. A second field goal, this one from 32 yards, gave the Blue Devils a 6-0 lead as the first quarter was expiring, but that ultimately proved to be the last of Duke's scoring for the night.

Clemson took a 7-6 lead in the second quarter, when Tavien Feaster rushed for a two-yard score. Ross hauled in a 19-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence with a minute left in the first half, bringing the score to 14-6 at the break.

Etienne broke away for both of the third quarter's touchdowns, scoring on runs of 27 and 29 yards in the third quarter. The fourth quarter saw Lawrence connect with T.J. Chase on a 10-yard scoring pass, bringing the score to the final of 35-6.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Clemson completed its seventh undefeated regular season in school history by defeating South Carolina, 56-35, on a cold and foggy night at Memorial Stadium.

The Tigers posted a season-high 744 yards of offense against the Gamecocks, the third-highest total in school history. The teams combined for 1,344 yards, the second-largest combined yardage total in Clemson history behind the 1,351 yards combined for by Clemson and NC State in 2012. Clemson recorded a season-high 38 first downs, the second-most in school history and only two shy of the school record of 40 set against South Carolina in 2016.

Trevor Lawrence amassed a career-high 393 passing yards on 27 completions in 36 attempts and helped engineer touchdown drives of 95, 97 and 98 yards among others. His top target was Tee Higgins, who totaled 142 yards with a score in six receptions.

On the ground, Travis Etienne added 150 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries, and Adam Choice ran for three scores in just seven carries. Defensively, J.D. Davis hauled in his first career interception.

The game marked Clemson's first time posting both 300 passing yards and 300 rushing yards against South Carolina in series history. The victory was also Clemson's 100th of the decade, making the Tigers one of three FBS programs with 100 wins in the 2010s.

DEC. 1, 2018
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM • CHARLOTTE, N.C.

CHARLOTTE – No. 2 Clemson became the first team in ACC history to win four consecutive conference titles outright on a rainy Saturday night at Bank of America Stadium, defeating the Coastal champion Pittsburgh Panthers by a score of 42-10.

Trevor Lawrence completed 12-24 pass attempts for 118 yards with a pair of touchdown tosses to Tee Higgins. Travis Etienne added 156 yards with two touchdowns on 12 carries en route to game MVP honors.

On the defensive side of the ball, Clemson held the Pitt offense to negative yardage for the first nine minutes of the game and also limited the Panthers to just eight passing yards for the whole game, setting ACC Championship Game records for the fewest total yards and fewest passing yards allowed. Linebacker Tre Lamar topped the stat sheet with nine total tackles.

Clemson found the endzone on the night's first play from scrimmage, as Etienne exploded for a 75-yard scoring run that gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead just 13 seconds into the matchup, the fastest score in ACC Championship history.

Pitt scored the second quarter's first touchdown, with Qadree Ollison cutting the Clemson lead to just four points on a one-yard scoring rush. But a five-yard scoring pass from Lawrence to Higgins put the Tigers' advantage back at 10 points. An A.J. Terrell interception returned 31 yards to the Pitt 10-yard line then set up Higgins' second touchdown reception of the night.

After a scoreless third quarter, rushing touchdowns by Adam Choice and Lyn-J Dixon in the final frame brought the final score to 42-10.

1940 COTTON BOWL

CLEMSON 6

BOSTON COLLEGE 3

JAN. 1, 1940 • COTTON BOWL • DALLAS, TEXAS

Jess Neely's last Clemson team won eight games in the regular season with just one loss to a Tulane team that would finish the season with an 8-1-1 record and No. 5 ranking by the Associated Press. The 8-1 Tigers were rewarded with an invitation to play Boston College in the fourth Cotton Bowl, but Clemson first had to get permission from the Southern Conference, which they immediately granted. The 1939 season not only resulted in Clemson's first bowl appearance, but also the Tigers' first, First-Team Associated Press All-American, Banks McFadden.

On the last play of the first quarter, Bru Trexler punted to Boston College's Charlie O'Rourke, who fielded the punt on the Clemson 40 and returned it to the 13. Two running plays lost 10 yards, but on third down Frank Davis gained six. Alex Lukachik then kicked a 34-yard field goal to put the Eagles up, 3-0.

Clemson's scoring drive began when McFadden returned a punt to the 33. Charlie Timmons rushed for 15 yards in two plays, and two plays after that, McFadden hit Wister Jackson with a 16-yard pass to the Eagle 20. Timmons ran the final 20 yards in three carries, but Shad Bryant missed the extra point.

Later in the quarter, a 51-yard punt by McFadden started Boston College at its 20. The Eagles fumbled on first down and Clemson's George Fritts recovered at the 24. The Tigers could do nothing with the gift, however, as Joe Blalock fumbled after a short pass.

The game turned into a defensive struggle in the second half, although Boston College did penetrate deep into Clemson territory on two occasions. The Eagles took the opening kickoff to the Clemson 19, but a holding penalty and an incomplete pass ended the threat and BC was forced to punt.

Late in the game, the Eagles drove to the Clemson 11 yard line, but Bryant and McFadden each broke up two passes and Clemson took over possession on downs.

McFadden effectively bottled up the Eagles other than those drives with his punting. His 44-yard average on 11 kicks, including two boots for 51 and 55 yards in the second half, prevented Boston College from getting good field position, and the Clemson defense made the 6-3 score stand.

NOTRE DAME                                 22

OCT. 3, 2015 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Clemson battled sixth-ranked Notre Dame through torrential rains from Hurricane Joaquin under the lights. But the wet weather did not hold the Tigers back in a hard-fought 24-22 victory.

Deshaun Watson led the Tigers to an explosive start, connecting with Jordan Leggett in the endzone on the first drive. Clemson took an early 14-0 lead with another Watson touchdown, this time a 13-yarder to Artavis Scott.

The remainder of the first half proved uneventful, but Watson came out to re-ignite the offense in the second half, running in a touchdown to put the Tigers up 21-3 early in the third quarter.

Trailing 21-3, Notre Dame refused to give in and made the game a tense one over the final 15 minutes. In three consecutive crucial moments for the Tiger defense in the fourth quarter, Clemson came away with a pair of recovered fumbles and ultimately survived on a two-point conversion stand with seven seconds remaining.

The Fighting Irish had pulled within two at 24-22 on a touchdown by Torii Hunter Jr., but Deshone Kizer's designed quarterback run was stuffed by Carlos Watkins and Kevin Dodd, and Clemson survived the furious rally.

Watson accounted for three scores, while rushing for 93 yards. Wayne Gallman continued his strong start, with 23 carries for 111 yards.

Following the contest, Dodd was named ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week and B.J. Goodson earned ACC Linebacker of the Week honors. Dodd posted 3.5 tackles for loss, with two sacks and a forced fumble. Goodson had two takeaways in the fourth quarter, the first Tiger to do so in a game won by seven points or less since Terry Kinard, who also did it against Notre Dame, in 1979.
